conference must remain a mystery to the public. Even the delegates of some of the nations represented here are ignorant of what is in the minds of the navel "Big Three"—Hughes, Ballour Kato—who are described as regarding it as a "matter of honor" not to divulce what happened at their two hour conference on Friday night.

The long delay in carrying forward the mayal discussions is explained by the time required for the Japanese delegates to communicate with Tokio, as we'll as by the importance which the Japanese attach to the present stage of the negotiations. It is said in Japanese circles here that the mobe officials sloubtless with appeared to be an almost insurmountable bearing to monitoring the service of overcoming with appeared to be an almost insurmountable bearing to the monitoring to be an almost insurmountable bearing as the service of the ristions.
